

VLADIMIR VANO

Chief Economist / Head of CEE Research Competence Center Sberbank Europe AG, Vienna

Vladimir Vano's overseas professional experience comes from internships with economic think-tank NGO Employment Policy Foundation in Washington, D.C. and with the global headquarter of Merrill Lynch in New York City in 2001. In 2011 and 2012 he served as external advisor for monetary affairs to the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance of the Slovak Republic. Since 2011 he is included in the list of vetted experts for public finance with the UNDP (United Nations Development Programme). Since 2007, he assumed a position of the Chief Analyst of SBERBANK Slovensko and in July 2013, the board of Sberbank Europe AG appointed him to serve as Head of CEE Research Competence Center. Since July 2016, he has been holding a position of the Chief Economist of Sberbank Europe AG in Vienna. Vladimir Vano is an alumnus of Wirtschaftsuniversität Wien and Carlson School of Management. A laureate of the Rector's Academic Award of Comenius University in Bratislava, he studied at its College of Management, and thanks to competitively won scholarships also at the College of Charleston, Georgetown and New York University.