

105th DGINS Conference

Bratislava, 9-10 October 2019

The statistical implications of (economic) globalisation

Agenda

<https://www.dgins2019.sk/agenda>

Wednesday 9 October

13:00 – 14:00 Registration

14:00 – 14:20 Opening

- Alexander Ballek, President of the Statistical Office of the Slovak Republic
- Mariana Kotzeva, Director General of Eurostat

14:20 – 14:40 Keynote speech

- Peter Kažimír, Governor of the Central Bank of the Slovak Republic

14:40 – 15:00 Introductory presentation

- “Measuring economic globalisation in the ESS: taking stock of progress”, Sophie Limpach, Director of Business and trade statistics and John Verrinder, Director of macroeconomic statistics (Eurostat)

15:00 – 15:45 Coffee break and group photo

15:45 – 17:45 Session 1

The user perspective – what should we portray and how

Chair: František Bernadič

Vice President of the Statistical Office of the Slovak Republic

15:45 – 15:50 Introduction by the chair

15:50 – 16:45 Presentations (~20' each)

- “Is the available information on global business sufficient for economic analysis?”, Stefan Zeugner, European Commission, Directorate General for Economic and Financial Affairs

- “Presenting the effects of economic globalisation to the public: what and how?”, Vladimír Vaňo, journalist and economic analyst
- “Globalization and other challenges to uses and interpretations of National Accounts”, Didier Blanchet, Head of the National Accounts and Economic Studies Directorate of INSEE (France)

16:45 – 17:45 Discussion and conclusions

Thursday 10 October

9:00 – 12:00 Session 2

Measuring MNEs and addressing user needs for consistency

Chair: Konrad Pesendorfer

Director General of Statistics Austria

08:30 – 09:00 Registration

09:00 – 09:05 Introduction by the chair

09:05 – 11:00 Presentations (~20' each)

- “Cooperation between the Statistical Office of Slovak Republic and MNE Globalization in the steel industry”, Veronika Töröková and Alexander Zemančík, Statistical Office of the Slovak Republic and US Steel Corporation
- “Towards a systematic approach to MNEs – linking cross domain activities and data”, Gianpaolo Oneto, Head of the National Accounts Directorate of ISTAT (Italy)
- “Systematic approach to addressing MNEs and the impact on national processes”, Bert Kroese, Deputy Director-General of CBS (the Netherlands)

10:10 – 10:40 Coffee break

- “Micro data linking on MNEs to respond to user needs”, Christel Colin, Director of Business Statistics of INSEE (France)

11:00 – 12:00 Discussion and conclusions

12:00 – 13:30 Lunch break

13:30-15:30 Session 3

Addressing user needs for the measurement of international flows

Chair: Marek Rojíček

President of the Czech Statistical Office

13:30 – 13:35 Introduction by the chair

13:35 – 15:30 Presentations (~20')

- “Asymmetries in international trade in goods”, Alžbeta Ridzoňová, Statistical Office of the Slovak Republic
- “Overcoming borders - lessons learnt from the Asymmetry Resolution Meetings”, Caroline Willeke, Silke Stapel-Weber, European Central Bank
- “Business Expectations on Exports: How important they can be”, Cristina Neves, Director of Economic Statistics Department of INE (Portugal)

14:45 – 15:30 Discussion and conclusions

15:30 – 16:00 Coffee break

16:00 – 17:00 Panel discussion

Serving users through a coordinated statistical approach to economic globalisation in the European Statistical System

Chair: Mariana Kotzeva
Director General of Eurostat

František Bernadič (Vice President of the Statistical Office of the Slovak Republic), Jørgen Elmeskov (Director General of Statistics Denmark), Paul Schreyer (Deputy Chief Statistician at the OECD), Gallo Gueye (Deputy Director General of Eurostat), Vladimír Vaňo (Journalist and economic analyst)

17:00 – 17:30 Closing remarks and Bratislava Conclusions

- Alexander Ballek, President of the Statistical Office of the Slovak Republic
- Mariana Kotzeva, Director General of Eurostat